PERSON CENTRED CARE

At Integrative Supported Living Care, we adopt a person-centred approach when formulating and designing personalised support for individuals. This approach serves as a catalyst, empowering them to actively pursue their desired goals. By tailoring our support to address specific needs and circumstances, we ensure that the solutions and plans we implement effectively assist individuals in attaining their predetermined objectives. Our unwavering commitment to individualised care ensures that each person receives the necessary support to reach their full potential.

A Person -Centred Plan Principles

DOMICILIARY CARE

Our service encompasses the provision of personalised care for individuals within the comfort of their own homes. Recognising the diverse range of needs among service users, we tailor care packages to accommodate unique circumstances and requirements. Whether it be during specific time slots throughout the day or round-the-clock assistance. Our dedicated team ensures that care is delivered promptly and reliably. In instances where intermittent care is provided, individuals have the freedom to live independently, without continuous support, between scheduled visits.
